This charming Northside bungalow is definitely easy on the eyes. Situated on a corner lot you are first greeted by a spacious front porch and a freshly painted exterior. As you enter through the front door and take in all the charm, make sure to pinch yourself and enjoy the beautifully refinished hardwood floors, open concept and new paint throughout. The saying that the kitchen is the heart of the home was meant for this one. The kitchen boasts exposed brick, recessed lighting, a flattop Frigidaire stove, butcher block counters, stainless hood vent and barstool seating for additional eating space. The downstairs basement area is large and bright with washer/dryer hookups, tons of storage space, and room on the walls to store your bikes after cruising the new Cannon Creek Greenway which provides access to the VA Capital Trail from Northside. Other features include brand new HVAC, all new plumbing, new electrical and a fenced in back yard. Conveniently located near Brooklyn Park Boulevard so grab a bite at the Fuzzy Cactus or ice cream at Ruby Scoops. Short walk to Hotchkiss park and about 2.5 miles to VCU and MCV. You do not want miss this adorable gem!
